County Court Proceedings.

The county court was in session two days last week, all judges present. Most of the time was devoted to the matter of the suits on the bonds from the old Pemiscot County Bank to the county for the amount of the Tindle shortage.

J. W. Stephens was given a saloon license for his present ington.

A. L. Oliver, as attorney for Drainage District No. 8, was instructed to prepare a contract the latter to draw a part of the ten per cent which has been held by the county. Mr. McElheny stated that he would, by securing this sum, be enabled to carry on his work for some time.

Small accounts were allowed for expenses of the term.

The list of petit jurors for the July term of court was drawn as follows:

Little Prairie, Clark Brown, J. A, Medlin, Van New, Joe Bruce, Tom Whitson and W. L. Bennett. Braggadocio, Arthur White and Ben Phillips.

Cooter, Sam Brooks and J. F.
